Work Experience and Achievements

From 1989 onwards

A graduate in Science, I pursued the chartered accountancy course and qualified in the year 1988. I was in independent practice for a year prior to joining M/s. Singhvi, Dev & Unni and served as a Partner of the Firm up to June 2018.

Core area of practice

I was practicing in the field of direct taxes and company law matters for a few years before I started specialization in indirect taxes. Thereafter, I was mainly involved in indirect tax (sales tax, value added tax and GST) consulting, advisory, planning and representation activities at various levels for all kinds and classes of entities. Over the last three decades I have appeared before:

- ✓ Assessing Authorities in various States in India for assessments in over 2000 cases;
- ✓ Appellate Authorities in at least 7 States and in over 1000 cases;
- ✓ The Honourable Tribunal in over 600 cases (including in 4 different States);
- ✓ The Enforcement Authorities in several large cases in the Southern States and largely in Karnataka;
- ✓ Advance Ruling authorities and State Commissioners for issue of clarifications;
- ✓ The State Government Officers for discussion of various memoranda on behalf of Trade and Industry;
- ✓ I have been a part of team from ICAI, New Delhi who made representation before the Ministry of Finance / CBIC at the North Block, New Delhi.

I have a few reported cases to my credit too.

Authorship and paper writing

I have co-authored the following books': -

- i. Handbook on Value Added Tax;
- ii. Audit under the KVAT Laws;
- iii. Discussion Paper on the Key Transitional Issues in Proposed GST Regime;
- iv. I have been a part of the core team on behalf of ICAI, New Delhi in writing several editions of the Background Material on GST published by ICAI, New Delhi;

J. Valsar
